THE UTICANITE

VOLUME 23

1978

UTICA JUNIOR COLLEGE

UTICA, MISSISSIPPI 39175

DEDICATION

MRS. ELLESTENE TURNER

"It is only to the individual that a soul is given. And the high destiny of the individual is to serve rather than to rule."

Albert Einstein

The 1979 UTICANITE is a culmination of the efforts of students, faculty, staff, administrators, friends and supporters who share a common bond: Utica Junior College. So it is only fitting that we dedicate this UTICANITE to one who truly epitomizes the common interests of Utica Junior College. We the future Uticanites have chosen Mrs. Ellestene Turner as the most deserving person, worthy of this 1979 UTICANITE. We make this sincere dedication because she gives meaning and dignity to the hopes and dreams of those of us who have touched upon the realm of her unselfish contributions to Utica Junior College and Hinds Agricultural High School.

Mrs. Turner joined the Utica Junior College, then Utica Institute, and Hinds County Agricultural High School Staff in 1952. For 27 years, she has served higher education as a concerned educator, counselor, registrar, admissions officer, and most of all, a warm, friendly, and congenial human being.

Not only has Mrs. Turner made giant contributions to Utica Junior College, but she has also woven her lasting and significant contributions into the farmework of womanhood like a perpetual thread.

So it is to you, Mrs. Turner, whom we love, admire, sometimes envy, and often emulate, that we most humbly and reverently dedicate this 1979 UTICANITE.

THE STAFF

A NIGHT TO REMEMBER

A house damaged by the tornado.

Workers repairing damage done by the tornado.

The clock stopped.

Cleanup during the aftermath of the tornado.

Everyone pitched in and helped.

A damaged classroom.

Washington Hall lost a roof.

Rear structural damage.

Cleanup workers take a break

A ray of sunshine comes in.

Everything was lost.

Mr. Bell cleans up the Union.

The Union upstairs.

A broken window in the Administration Building.

Dr. Haynes accepts auto from General Motors.

The right way to do it.

This really is easy.

VOCATIONAL-TECHNICAL

Is this the right way?

A touch of genius

Utica's VICA team departing for the State Meet.

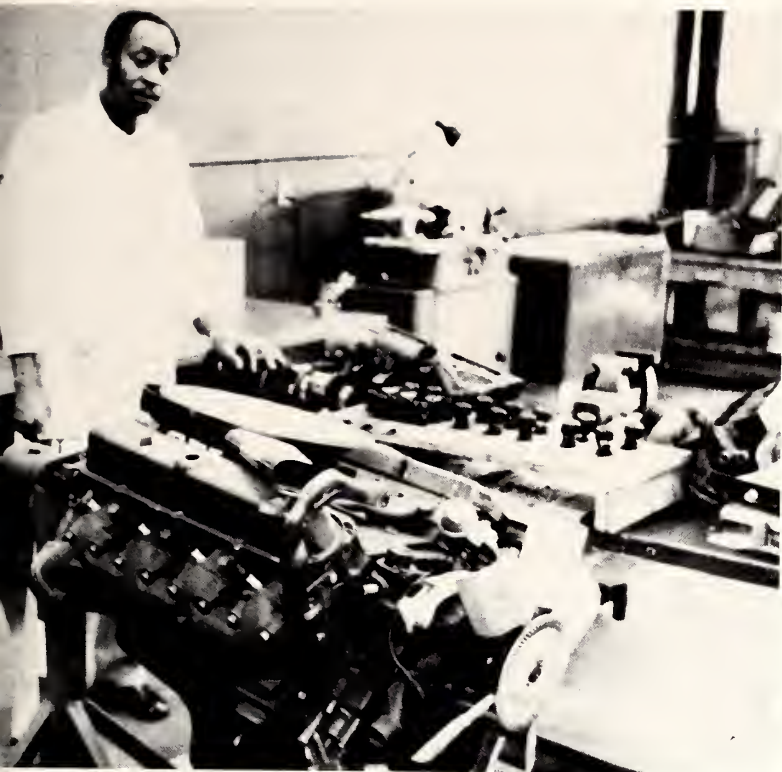

Mr. Richardson observes a student.

This is the correct way to roll.

The correct way to test a circuit.

I know the motor is in here somewhere.

My first roll is going to be perfect.

It's time to eat.

I hope I don't fall off.

Where did he go to get the hammer?

I wonder if it's time to go ...

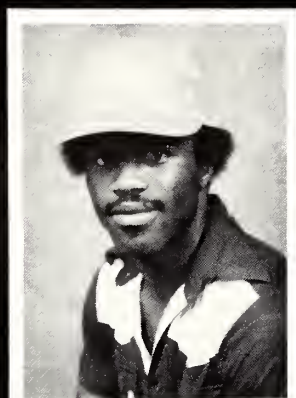

Mr. McGee watches a student demonstration.

That's right. Show him, Mr. Hubbard.

Alumni acknowledges Mrs. Edna Turner Banks, the oldest alumna at the attendance of the first annual Utica Junior College Alumni Day in August, is a warm witty human being. She moves with the assistance of a cane since she suffered a stroke in 1960. She said, "That was 18 years ago, but I'm still holding on."

An interesting personality, Mrs. Banks seemed proud to have graduated May 3, 1918, from Utica Institute. The faculty and staff wish Mrs. Banks the best of luck and continual blessings from God.

EDITOR'S MESSAGE

What we want from the future plays an important part in what we do today. We the staff of the '79 Uticanite have, therefore, chosen what we think to be a most timely theme: LOOKING INTO THE FUTURE.

We sincerely hope that in the preceding pages we have shown you what we here at Utica Junior College are trying to do in preparation for the future. May these pages forever bring back memories of the days that were. In looking back, may you be able to say honestly that you were looking into the future, and that that future is what you expected and planned it to be.

We have not had an easy task this year, but we have relished the moments we shared in putting this the '79 UTICANITE in print. Moreover, through all our ups and downs, we had you in mind. We can only hope that a little of what we have done in these pages will remain permanently etched in your minds.

Sincerely

Anita Terrell
Editor-in-Chief
